

Experience Uluru with this unique day trip from Cairns

on Friday 23 April 2021

What's included?

All inclusive day trip to Uluru for just $499*
per person

RETURN AIRFARES WITH Alliance AIRLINES

This package includes return airfares on an Alliance Airlines F100 aircraft. Guests will also be served a complimentary food plate and alcoholic beverage on-board the flight to Uluru.

$1* AIRPORT PARKING

Travellers are eligible for $1 parking at Cairns Airport in the T1 International Budget Car Park.

TRANSFERS TO/FROM AYERS ROCK (ULURU) AIRPORT

Transport will be provided for the duration of the trip in an air-conditioned AAT Kings Coach including to/from Ayers Rock (Uluru) Airport.

SUNSET TOUR

Sit back and relax as you travel into Uluru Kata-Tjuta National Park. Enjoy sparkling wine and nibbles as you begin to absorb the enormity and beauty of your surroundings at the Sunset Viewing Area, relax or stroll around to discover your own personal spot to watch the amazing Uluru sunset and watch the many colours change.

BBQ DINNER UNDER THE STARS

Enjoy an exclusive Aussie barbecue, the only evening dining experience inside Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. Enjoy sparkling wine on arrival and dine on a variety of meats and a selection of freshly prepared salads, followed by a tasty dessert. Your meal is accompanied by wine, beer and soft drinks. There's even time for star gazing. Gluten free, dairy free and vegetarian options are available.

FIELD OF LIGHTS

After dinner, take a short drive in total darkness to a private dune top viewing area, from here your host provides details of the artist and his incredible undertaking 50,000 spheres of light. Wander through the paths surrounding hand-crafted frosted glass spheres, in colours of ochre, deep violet, blue and gentle white. Return to the dune top to be served tea, coffee or hot chocolate as the dawn creeps across the desert plain and lights up Uluru, with Kata Tjuta behind you.

Note: Transfers, Sunset Tour, BBQ Dinner and Field of Lights visit is facilitated by AAT Kings.

- It remains the responsibility of every individual to ensure they comply with Government restrictions and travel advice that may be in place at the time of travel.

CHARTER FLIGHT

- Any cancellation due to mechanical failure, inclement weather or Force Majeure will be made at the discretion of the airline and every attempt will be made to reschedule. However, if alternative arrangements cannot be made a full refund will be provided.
- Alliance Airlines retains the right to cancel a charter at any time up to and including the day of the charter should a Commonwealth, State or Territory directive be issued that would result in the crew operating the charter having to quarantine on return to their home base.
- Alliance Airlines will have the sole right to refuse to carry or continue to carry any passenger who (or cargo that), might endanger the safety of the Aircraft or persons on board.
- A charter service may suffer from a justifiable delay. A justifiable delay means:
 - (a) The effects of weather which may prevent or delay take-off or landing of the aircraft or whilst the aircraft is enroute;
 - (b) Delay to a flight due to traffic restrictions imposed by air traffic controllers, airports (including curfew restrictions) or any Government Entity;
 - (c) Non availability of essential services and facilities provided by Air Services Australia or any Airport Authority.

In the event of a justifiable delay, Alliance shall use all reasonable diligence and endeavours to operate the Charter with the minimum possible delay or disruption to the Charterer.

Force Majeure

'Force Majeure' means:

- (a) any material change in law;
- (b) war, whether declared or not;
- (c) revolution or acts of terrorism or acts of public enemies;
- (d) riot or civil commotion;
- (e) any national or state-wide strike, lockout or stoppage, work ban, restraint of labour, go-slow or other national or state wide industrial dispute which renders Alliance unable to provide the Services for more than 5 consecutive days;
- (f) act of God;
- (g) acts of any Government entity (including confiscation, expropriation or nationalisation);

(h) power failures or shortages;

(i) sabotage, terrorism or shortage of fuel;

(j) fire, flood, storm, tempest, earthquake, volcanic eruptions and wash-away;

(k) fuel contamination or the failure of fuel or refuelling equipment available at any port relevant to the operation of the Services, and from which Alliance customarily uplifts fuel, to meet the Aircraft manufacturer's or CASA (Australian Civil Aviation Safety Authority) standards, which continues beyond two days or impacts the day of operations of the services;

(l) an event outside of Australia as defined above and which would impact services in Australia.

PROVIDED THAT it is not reasonably within the control of the affected party and not through its fault or negligence and that the parties will still be required to make payments for flights that are not affected by Force Majeure events.

If a Force Majeure Event occurs:

(a) a party affected by the Force Majeure Event shall promptly notify the other party, giving full particulars of the Force Majeure Event and the probable delay in the performance or observance of the obligation;

(b) the obligations of a party under this Agreement shall be suspended only to the extent that it is wholly or partially precluded from complying with its obligations under this Agreement by the Force Majeure Event;

(c) the affected party shall use all reasonable diligence and endeavours to seek to remedy, avoid or overcome the Force Majeure Event as quickly as is practicable, including by the use of all reasonable precautions and any reasonable alternative measures to mitigate the Force Majeure Event; and

(d) the affected party shall promptly on the cessation of the Force Majeure Event notify the other party of the cessation and recommence performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

The parties acknowledge that, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the Company, if a Force Majeure Event affects Alliance, the Charterer shall be entitled to have the Services performed during the subsistence of the Force Majeure Event by a person other than Alliance without penalty.

Liability Insurance

Alliance maintains insurances accordance with, and limited to, the provisions of the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act 1959 and the Damage by Aircraft Act 1999.

Alliance will cover the cost of liability insurance to the value of AUD150 million.
